

United we win for our communities and ourselves

We know we can make improvements for our clients, our families, and our communities when we are united and taking action. In January we lobbied the state legislature to increase funding for behavioral health, chemical dependency, and housing and we won millions of dollars directed to support the work we do. Now we need to use our strength and unity to ensure that funding comes all the way to us on the front lines. A majority of us filled out surveys and 93% of us voted yes on our ideas to raise standards at Catholic Community Services.

We worked hard in our first session to find common ground and look forward to making more progress.

Talk to your bargaining team member to learn more!

Next bargaining dates:
June 12, June 21

Our bargaining team

Rob Robertson, Everett Family Center
John McAlpine, Everett Family Center
Valerie Richards, Everett Family Center
Liz Franco, Everett Recovery Center
Bart Wheaton, Everett Recovery Center
Veronica Villalobos, Skagit Recovery Center
Courtney Pratt, Grocery Building
Michael Plummer, Grocery Building

Our contract action team

Jorden Rosa, Grocery Building
Grace Miller-Tran, Grocery Building
Rob Coiner, Grocery Building
Christine Robinson, Grocery Building
Tyler McFarland, Grocery Building
Tawny Scollard, Everett Family Center

"We as a team have been listening to you and working to build proposals to reflect the concerns we have heard from everyone. We are encouraged by the collaborative work we did to reach five tentative agreements on our first day. Come talk to any one of us about our next steps to achieve a great contract."

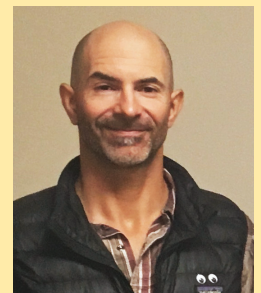

Rob Robertson, John McAlpine, Veronica Villalobos, Courtney Pratt, Michael Plummer

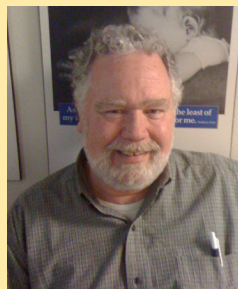

Rob Robertson,
Everett Family
Center

Veronica Villalobos,
Skagit Recovery
Center

Michael Plummer,
Grocery Building

John McAlpine,
Everett Family
Center

Courtney Pratt,
Grocery Building