United for Our Contract and Co-workers

We move into the CPC/Sound merger stronger than ever, demanding that all of our co-workers, benefits and our contract move forward together. Sound has sent offer letters to some members at CPC, and our delegates encourage you to accept the offer letter as we continue to work to stay united and sort through what it means for all of us.

If you did not receive an offer letter, contact one of our union delegates to learn about the next steps. By staying united, we will emerge stronger than ever. We will have member meetings in the near future to share what we know, so make sure to keep in touch with your delegate to learn when we will be meeting at your worksite:

Our delegates are:

Rayna Heard, NCSS, LCW

Abby Minor, Child and Family Therapist
Northgate/Willows

Jason Foldvik NCSS LCW

Bethany Simpson, RC, Cascade Hall

Lisa Williams, Housekeeping, El Rey

"We want to ensure that we remain strong and that everyone is able to transition to Sound. If you received an offer letter, please accept so we can call stay strong together at Sound! If you did not receive an offer letter, please reach out! Either way, keep in touch with your delegates to learn next steps."

Rayna Heard, NCSS, LCW, SEIU
Healthcare 1199NW Executive Board Member

"We have accomplished so much as a union! This year alone we have had a number a major victories for breaks, staffing, safety and bringing everyone on to a contract! We did that because we remained united. We need that unity going forward through this merger!"

Abby Minor, Child and Family
Therapist Northgate/Willows

"Unity is what is needed! We are going to stay united to ensure that our clients, our contract, and all of our staff are respected throughout this merger process."

Lisa Williams, Housekeeper, El Rey
