United for Our Voice, United to Vote Yes!

Save the date: Ballots will be mailed out Jan 5.
Be on the lookout!

We are voting yes to ensure a voice in patient care, staffing, wages, working conditions, and benefits.

We have spent the past few months working together building our support and unity throughout CHI Rehab. We are united in having our voices heard for patients and each other.

The National Labor Board has set our union ballot mail out date and vote count! Ballots will be mailed out January 5 and will be hitting our mailboxes shortly after. The ballot vote count will take place on January 26 at 1 p.m.

"Each day we uphold the values and patient care standards, but as a workforce we suffer from short staffing, wages that aren't keeping up with inflation, and not being heard. I am voting yes to sit equal with management to resolve these concerns."

— Monika Kwasigroch, CNA

"The time is now to stand together for our patients and each other. Management had their chance to do what was needed. I am voting yes to protect our patients."

— Precious Millsaps

"Through this process, our bond as coworkers has strengthened. I am so lucky to be working with you all in support of a happy and healthy workplace. I could not have asked for a better team. We all share the same goal — positive outcomes for patients. For us to maximize positive patient outcomes, our needs must be met. Remember, we all deserve a safe and positive place to work and voting yes will be a major step toward that goal. I am excited to vote yes. I am excited to take a big step toward ensuring our voices are heard. I hope you are also excited."

— Jenny Mackenzie, LPN

"Don't wait for the opportunity, create it."

— Bryan Roberts, LPN
